

Bio for Donald D. Curran, Virco Mfg. Corporation-Conway Division, Facilities Manager

Don joined Virco Mfg. Corporation in 1973 prior to attending the University of Central Arkansas. In 1988, Virco Mfg. Corporation realized the necessity of becoming an environmentally friendly corporate entity. As such, a pilot recycling program started in 1988 under Don's leadership. Over the last thirty years, Virco Mfg. Corporation has received numerous awards and honors for its corporate recycling and waste prevention activities as well as its community involvement, including being featured on The Discovery Channel's Today's Environment and being named a charter member of the Environmental Protection Agency's Waste Wise Hall of Fame. Don is a board member on the Arkansas Recycling Coalition and a past Vice President of the organization. Don currently serves as the chairperson for the Arkansas Recycling Coalition Corporate Counsel and is a board member on the Compliance Advisory Panel/State of Arkansas Marketing Board for Recyclables.

Don resides in Conway, Arkansas with his wife, Sherry. They have two children, Allison Albritton and Jacob Curran, and four grandchildren.