

Mayor Doug Kinslow -

Doug Kinslow was elected as Mayor of the City of Greenwood, Arkansas beginning in 2014. As Mayor, Kinslow has worked diligently to insure a positive change in leadership and is committed to future growth, all while maintaining a high quality of life for his community.

Prior to being elected Mayor of Greenwood, Kinslow held the position of Parks Director for the City of Greenwood from 2006 - 2014; He was Minister of Family Life and Recreation at First Baptist Church in Greenwood from 2005 – 2006 and was Director of the South Sebastian County Boys and Girls Club from 1995 – 2004.

Mayor Kinslow serves on various boards and councils. Appointed by Governor Asa Hutchison, Kinslow, serves on the ADEQ - Compliance Advisory Panel. He is currently serving on the Arkansas Municipal League's, Economic Development Advisory Council as Chairman; Frontier Metropolitan Planning Organization Policy Board as Chairman; Area Agency on Aging Board of Directors; Western Arkansas Workforce Development Area Board of Directors; and is a Fort Smith Regional Alliance Board Member.

Born November 5, 1957, Mayor Kinslow is a 1976 graduate of Greenwood High School and attended WestArk Community College. He has been married to his High school sweet heart, Pam Kinslow, for 40 years. They have 4 children, 3 sons, Kory, Christopher and Nicholas, one daughter Keely and one grandson, Heath.